2. The RMSA Funds.

- 2.1 Legally the school and the RMSA are two completely distinct entities, which means the funds raised by the RMSA belong to the RMSA. Charity Law stipulates that charity trustees (i.e. elected committee members) are responsible for deciding how the funds raised are spent. This means the school cannot determine how the RMSA allocates its money, RMSA funds shouldn't be taken into consideration when preparing school budgets and do not need to be audited at the same time as the school budgets.
- 2.2 The RMSA financial year is aligned to the academic year and runs from the 1st September to the 31st August each year.

3. Bank Account.

- 3.1 The RMSA has its own Current Account with the Nat West Bank.
- 3.2 The number of signatories named on the Bank Mandate should not be less than 2 and no more than four - these must be committee members who hold one of the following posts, for which there is a current Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) check:

4. Treasurer.

4.1 It is the responsibility of the Treasurer to maintain the accounts and report on the current financial position at each committee meeting as well as prepare the accounts for verification in preparation for the annual submission to the Charity Commission.

4.2 Committee meetings happen at least once a term and the treasurer should provide a report for each meeting. The reports need to show income, expenditure, liabilities and balance of account. A template is provided in Annex 2.

4.3 The RMSA Annual General Meeting (AGM) is held in September each year and the previous year's accounts should be presented ready for verification or audit, as required by the Charity Commission (Annex 1) at the AGM.

They can continue to volunteer for the charity, but they cannot hold a designated role.

- ✓ Parentkind membership
 - ✓ buying stock and goods for sale at events
 - ✓ paying third party suppliers.
- 8.2 If the RMSA wishes to raise funds for a specific purpose that would require an extended period, this pot of funding would be restricted funds. If the RMSA were to decide on a long-term funding project the committee is responsible for identifying and agreeing on the percentage of funds raised which will be restricted and use the remainder to benefit students immediately.
- 8.3 The RMSA has responsibility to ensure
- ✓ it clearly communicates how money raised is spent.
 - ✓ it is clearly communicated when fundraising for a larger project, identifying what percentage of the funds will be retained for a larger project.
